- g) customer's actions which seem to aim at concealing their or the beneficial owner's real identity,
- h) the customer or the beneficial owner who are nationals of a country which does not enforce, or fails to fully enforce, measures to combat legitimisation of proceeds of crime and financing of terrorism, or
- i) customer's identification data the correctness of which the obliged entity has reasons to doubt.

- (2) A transaction shall always be perceived as suspicious, should:
- a) the customer or the beneficial owner be a person against whom the Czech Republic has imposed international sanctions under the Act on Implementation of International Sanctions¹⁷⁾,
 - b) the goods or services involved in the transaction fall in the category against which the Czech Republic has imposed international sanctions under the Act on Implementation of International Sanctions¹⁷⁾, or
 - c) the customer refuses to reveal identification data of the person they are representing or to undergo the due diligence process.

PART TWO RESPONSIBILITIES OF THE OBLIGED ENTITIES

CHAPTER I
CUSTOMER IDENTIFICATION AND DUE DILLIGENCE

Section 7

The Identification Requirement

(1) The obliged entity, should it be a party to a transaction exceeding EUR 1,000, shall always identify the customer prior to the transaction, unless stipulated otherwise by this Act.

(2) The obliged entity shall, without regard to the limit stipulated in para. 1, always identify the customer in case of:

- a) a suspicious transaction,
- b) an agreement to enter into a business relationship,
- c) an agreement to establish an account; an agreement to make a deposit into a deposit passbook or a deposit certificate; or an agreement to make any other type of deposit,
- d) an agreement to use a safety deposit box or an agreement on custody,
- e) a life insurance contract, should the customer have a right to pay extra premiums above the agreed limit of the one-off or regular premium payments,
- f) a purchase or reception of cultural heritage, items of cultural value, used goods or goods without a receipt of origin to further trade in such goods, or reception of such items as pawn, or
- g) withdrawal of a cancelled bearer passbook's final balance.

(3) The obliged entity shall, at the latest on the day of the payment, identify the individual entitled to receive the life insurance settlement.

Section 8

Identification

(1) The obliged entity shall perform the initial identification of a customer who is a natural person as well as any natural person acting on behalf of a customer in personal presence of the identified, unless stipulated otherwise by this act.

(2) When identifying a customer who is:

- a) a natural person, the obliged entity shall take a record of and verify such customer's identification data, which are on their identity card, take a record of the type and number of the identity card, country of issue, validity, and, if possible, the issuing body, and make sure that the identity card photo matches that of the holder,
- b) a legal person, the obliged entity shall take a record of and verify such customer's identification data from their business registration documents, and, to the extent stipulated in letter a), identify the natural person acting in the transaction on behalf of such legal person; should the statutory body, its member, or the person in control of such legal person be another legal person, the obliged entity shall also record such person's data.

(3) Should the customer be represented by a holder of a power of attorney, such holder's identification shall follow the procedure stipulated in para. 2 and the holder shall submit the respective power of attorney; no power of attorney is required should the holder of a power of attorney be solely depositing cash to the customer's account and submitting to the obliged entity deposit forms that have been completed and signed by an authorized person.

(4) Should the customer be represented by a statutory agent, such a statutory agent shall be identified in accordance with para. 2. The guardian ad litem shall present identification data of the represented person.

(5) In a transaction with a customer, who has already been identified in line with para. 2, the obliged entity shall properly verify the identity of the acting natural person. The obliged entity may identify such person even if the customer who is a natural person or the natural person acting on behalf of a legal person is not present.

(6) The obliged entity shall, when in business relationship with the customer or in further transactions, check the validity and completeness of the customer's identification data, information gathered in the course of the due diligence process (Section 9), or reasons for exempting the customer from the due diligence process (Section 13), and shall take record of any changes and modifications.

(7) Should the obliged entity suspect that a customer is not acting on their own behalf or is attempting to conceal their acting for a third party, it shall require the customer to submit a power of attorney as stipulated in para. 3. Everyone is obliged to honour such a request unless stipulated by lex specialis. Lawyers or notaries may fulfil this obligation by submitting to the obliged entity copies of relevant parts of documents used to gather the customer's identification data.

(8) The customer shall submit to the obliged entity any information necessary to perform identification and to check respective documents. The obliged entity may, for the purpose of this Act, make copies or excerpts from any of the above and process such information to enforce this Act.

Section 9

Customer Due Diligence

(1) The obliged entity shall, prior to a single transaction amounting to EUR 15,000 or more, a transaction subject to identification under Section 7(2a) to 7(2d), a transaction with a politically exposed person, and as part of a business relationship, perform the customer due diligence process. The customer shall submit to the obliged entity any information and documents necessary for the due diligence. The obliged entity may, for the purpose of this Act, make copies or excerpts from any of the above and process such information to enforce this Act.

(2) a customer due diligence process entails the following:

- a) collection of information on the purpose and intended nature of the transaction or business relationship,
- b) identification of the beneficial owner, should the customer be a legal person,
- c) collection of information necessary for on-going monitoring of the business relationship, including scrutiny of transactions undertaken throughout the course of that relationship to ensure that the transactions are consistent with the institution's knowledge of the customer, its business and risk profile,
- d) scrutinizing of the sources of funds.

(3) The obliged entity shall perform customer due diligence under para. 2 to the extent necessary to determine the potential risk of legitimisation of proceeds of crime and financing of terrorism depending on the type of customer, business relationship, product, or transaction. The obliged entity shall, vis-à-vis the persons empowered to supervise compliance of obligations under this Act (Section 35), justify the scope of customer due diligence or exception from the customer identification and due diligence requirements under Section 13, all the above with respect to the above stated risks.

Section 10

Customer Identification Performed by a Public Notary, or by Regional or Municipal Authority

(1) Should the initial customer identification by the obliged entity under Section 8(1) be, for serious reasons, impossible, such identification may be, upon request of either the customer or the obliged entity, performed by a public notary, a regional office, or a local authority in a municipality with extended powers.

(2) A public notary or an office in para. 1 shall take a record of such identification, which becomes a public document, and shall include the following:

- a) the name of the person performing the identification, name of the requesting person, and purpose of such identification,
- b) customer's identification data,
- c) a declaration of the identified natural person, the person acting on behalf of the identified legal person or a proxy, on the purpose and correctness of the identification performed, and/or on reservations to such identification,
- d) the place and date of the record and the place and date of the identification, should they differ,
- e) the signature of the identifying person, an official stamp, and a serial number in the log of identification deeds.

(3) As an appendix to the identification deed, the obliged entity shall make copies of relevant parts of documents used for the identification and bearing identification data, type and serial number of the identity card, issuing country and institution, and validity as well as a copy of the request, if filed in writing. Should this procedure be used to identify a proxy, the power of attorney or its certified copy shall be attached as an appendix. All appendices shall be attached to the identification record to make a complete file.

(4) All copies shall be legible and capable of storage for the period stipulated in Section 16. The file of copies shall include a copy of the image of the identified person in their identity card which allows for visual identification.

(5) Both public notary and an institution under para. 1 shall keep an internal log of identification deeds, in which it shall document the following:

- a) a serial number and date of the record,
- b) the following identified person's data:
 1. name, surname, permanent or other residence, birth identification number or date of birth of the identified natural person or natural person acting on behalf of the identified legal person,
 2. in case of an identification of a legal person, its business or corporate name, an appendix to the business name or any other identification features, a business identification number of the person, and a registered office,
- c) the purpose of identification.

(6) The identification deed log shall be kept on a calendar year basis and complete logs shall be stored for a period of 10 years.

Section 11

Acceptance of Identification

(1) The obliged entity may decide not to identify a customer or seek information on the purpose and nature of a transaction or a business relationship under Section 9(2a) and not to identify a beneficial owner under Section 9(2b), provided these steps have already been performed by:

- a) a credit or financial institution, with the exception of a person licensed to perform foreign currency exchange pursuant to the Foreign Currency Act, a holder of a postal licence pursuant to Act on Postal Services, a payment institution primarily providing payment services where for such transfer of funds neither the payer nor the payee use any account with the payment service provider of the payer, and a payment service provider of small extent pursuant to the Payment Act, or
- b) a foreign credit or financial institution, with the exception of a foreign person licensed to exchange foreign currency, foreign payment institution primarily providing transfers of funds, or a foreign provider of payment services having a similar status as a provider of small extent as regulated by the Payment Act, should it be located in the territory of a country, which enforces equivalent identification, customer due diligence, and record keeping requirements and should it be subject to compulsory business licensing or registration and supervision performing on and off-site control of its general performance as well as of its individual transactions.

(2) The obliged entity acting in accordance with para. 1 shall make sure that it will receive, from the credit or financial institution, or a foreign credit or financial institution which has performed the identification, all relevant documents, including copies of all documents used in the customer identification, all data indicating the purpose and nature of the business transaction, and information on the identity of the beneficial owner. The credit or financial institution shall, upon consent of the person identified and without undue delay, submit all information including copies of the documents hereinabove, to another obliged entity should such entity decide to rely on it for the customer identification.

(3) The obliged entity shall refuse such customer identification information, data indicating the purpose and nature of the business transaction, and information on the identity of the beneficial owner under para. 1 and 2, should it have a reason to doubt the correctness or completeness of such information.

(4) In case of a remote agreement on financial services under the Civil Code, the obliged entity shall identify the customer as follows:

- a) the first payment from this agreement shall be made via an account kept on the customer's name in a credit institution or a foreign credit institution operating in the European Union or the European Economic Area,
- b) the customer shall submit to the obliged entity a copy of a document verifying the existence of an account under letter a) above together with copies of the relevant parts of their identity card and at least one more identification document from which the obliged entity may determine the customer's identification data, type and serial number of such identity card, issuing country or institution, and validity. Such copies shall be made in line with requirements under Section 10(4).

(5) The credit or financial institution is not obliged to perform the customer identification and seek data indicating the purpose and nature of the business transaction under Section 9(2a) and information on the identity of the beneficial owner under Section 9(2b) should these steps had been performed prior to the transaction by a person acting on its behalf and on its account and bound by its internal regulations, and should such credit or financial institution bear responsibility for damages caused by such person. All information including copies of documents under the first sentence hereinabove shall be, if made, kept at the obliged entity.

(6) The credit or financial institution, when providing investment services, is not obliged to perform the customer identification and seek the data indicating the purpose and nature of the business transaction under Section 9(2a) and information on the identity of the beneficial owner under Section 9(2b) should these steps had been performed by an investment broker in line with this Act and its internal regulations. The obliged entity shall bear responsibility for such steps as if it had performed such steps itself.

(7) In cases under para. 1, 4, 5 and 6, the obliged entity shall verify that all conditions required have been met and that none of the customers, products, or transactions represent a risk of legitimisation of proceeds of crime or financing of terrorism. In case of doubt, no exceptions shall be applied.

Section 12

Common Provisions on Identification under Section 10 and Section 11

In case of identification and other steps under Section 10 or Section 11(4) and 11(6), all identification data and other information and documents listed therein shall be deposited with the obliged entity prior to the transaction.

Section 13

Exceptions from the Identification and Due Diligence Requirement

(1) The obliged entity is not obliged to perform any identification or due diligence should the customer be:

- a) a credit or financial institution,
- b) a foreign credit or financial institution operating in the territory of a country imposing and enforcing anti-money laundering and financing of terrorism measures equivalent to those imposed by the European Community law¹⁾ and supervised to that respect,
- c) a company whose securities are traded at a regulated market and which is subject to reporting requirements equivalent to those enforced by the European Community law,
- d) a beneficial owner of assets deposited with a public notary, lawyer, licensed executor, or court,
- e) a central Czech public authority, the Czech National Bank, or a higher self-governing territorial entity, or
- f) a customer:
 1. holding important public positions under the European Community law,
 2. whose identification data are publicly available and there is no reason to doubt their correctness, the territory of the Czech Republic and on the amendment of Act No. 48/1997 Coll., on Public medical insurance, as amended.

²⁰⁾ Regulation (EC) No 1781/2006 of the European Parliament and the Council.

Rejection of Transaction

(1) The obliged entity shall refuse to make a transaction or to enter into a business relationship should there be an identification requirement under Section 7(1) or 7(2) and should the customer refuse the identification process or fail to submit the power of attorney under Section 8(3), should they fail to assist the due diligence process under Section 9, should the customer identification or due diligence be impossible for other reasons, or should the person performing the customer identification or due diligence have a reason to doubt the correctness or authenticity of documents submitted.

(2) The obliged entity shall refuse a transaction for a politically exposed person should the origin of assets used in the transaction be unknown.

(3) No employee of the obliged entity shall make a transaction for a politically exposed person without consent of their direct supervisor or the statutory body of such obliged entity.

CHAPTER II RECORD KEEPING

Section 16

Obliged Entity's Record Keeping

(1) The obliged entity shall, for the period of 10 years after having terminated its business relationship with the customer, keep record of all identification data taken under Section 8(1) and 8(2) or in accordance with the directly applicable European Community Regulation stipulating the obligation to accompany transfers of funds with information on the payer²⁰, copies of documents submitted for identification (if any), records of the first identification (name and date), documents justifying potential exception from identification and due diligence under Section 13, and, in case of representation, the original or a certified copy of the power of attorney.

(2) The obliged entity shall, for the period of 10 years after the transaction or after having terminated its business relationship with the customer, keep record of all data and documents on transfers requiring identification.

(3) The obliged entity stipulated in Section 2(1j) and 2(1k) shall keep record of all data and documents for the period of at least 10 years after the transaction or after having terminated its business relationship with the customer should such transaction or relationship reach or exceed EUR 10,000; in other cases it shall keep its records for a period of 5 years.

(4) The statutory period under para. 1 to 3 shall commence on the first day of the calendar year following the calendar year in which the obliged entity performed the last transaction.

Section 17

Cooperation in Record Keeping

Should more obliged entities take part in a single customer transaction, the record keeping may be shared. Data under Section 16 may be kept by one of these obliged entities provided the other involved obliged entities have access to all necessary information including copies of all documents.

CHAPTER III SUSPICIOUS TRANSACTION

Section 18

Suspicious Transaction Report

(1) Should the obliged entity, in the course of its activities, detect a suspicious transaction, it shall, without undue delay and no later than 5 calendar days after such detection, report such suspicious transaction to the Ministry of Finance (hereinafter the "Ministry"). Should circumstances require so, in particular should there be a danger of delay; the obliged entity shall submit a suspicious transaction report to the Ministry immediately after having uncovered such suspicious transaction.

(2) In its suspicious transaction report, the obliged entity shall report the identification data of the person concerned, identification data of all the parties to the transaction, available to the obliged entity at the time of disclosure, information on all relevant features of the transaction and any other facts which may be important for an analysis of the suspicious transaction and potential application of measures against legitimisation of proceeds of crime or financing of terrorism.

(3) The suspicious transaction report shall not reveal any information about the obliged entity's employee or contractor who had identified the suspicious transaction.

(4) The Ministry shall receive the suspicious transaction report via the Financial Analytical Unit, which is a part of the organizational structure of the Ministry. In a remote-access fashion, the Ministry shall inform all obliged entities about its mailing address and other channels to be used to submit suspicious transaction reports.

(5) Should the suspicious transaction report under para. 2 also concern assets which are subject to international sanctions declared with the purpose of keeping or building international peace and security, the obliged entity shall notify such facts in the suspicious transaction report. The suspicious transaction report shall include a short description of given assets, information on its location and owner, should they be known to the disclosing entity, together with information on whether there is an immediate risk of damage.

(6) The disclosing entity shall notify the Ministry of the name, surname, and position of the contact person (Section 22) or the person who, on behalf of the contact person, drafted the suspicious transaction report, together with relevant telephone numbers or email addresses.

(7) Should a suspicious transaction be detected simultaneously by more obliged entities based on the information sharing provision under Section 39(2), the reporting obligation under para. 2 to 4 shall be regarded as fulfilled by all obliged entities once at least one of them submits its suspicious transaction report listing the other obliged entities on whose behalf it reports.

Section 19

The suspicious transaction report shall be submitted in writing via registered mail or orally in the form of a recorded statement at a previously agreed place, or via electronic mail provided the data transferred is properly protected.

Section 20

Suspension of a Transaction

(1) Should there be a danger that an immediate execution of a transaction would hamper or substantially impede securing of proceeds of crime or funds intended for financing of terrorism, the obliged entity may execute the customer's transaction recognized as suspicious no earlier than 24 hours after the Ministry had received the suspicious transaction report. The obliged entity shall make sure that the respective assets will not be handled in violation of this Act. The obliged entity shall inform the Ministry in the suspicious transaction report that the transaction has been suspended.

(2) The para. above shall not be enforced, should the suspension of the customer's transaction be rendered impossible, especially in transactions made via electronic means of payment, or should the obliged entity be aware of the fact, that suspension would hamper or otherwise pose a threat to the investigation of such suspicious transaction. The obliged entity shall inform the Ministry of such transaction immediately after it has been made.

(3) Should there be a threat under para. 1 and the investigation of such suspicious transaction require a longer period of time, the Ministry shall decide:

- a) to extend the period of suspension of the customer's transaction for no more than 72 hours after having received the suspicious transaction report, or
- b) to suspend the customer's transaction or to freeze the assets in such transaction for 72 hours in the obliged entity where the assets are located.

(4) The decision on suspension of a customer's transaction or on freezing of assets under para. 3 shall become binding upon its declaration. The declaration is either oral, or by means of a telephone, fax, or electronic mail, all the above must be followed by a hard copy. There is no appeal against a decision on suspension of a customer's transaction or on freezing of assets and the only party to the proceedings is the obliged entity disclosing the suspicious transaction or holding the assets believed to be involved in such a transaction.

(5) The obliged entity shall notify the Ministry of the enforcement of its decision under para. 3(b) and of the time of commencement of the period under para. 3(b). The obliged entity shall inform the Ministry of all important facts related to the assets concerned.

(6) Should the Ministry not inform the obliged entity, prior to the end of the period under para. 3, about having filed a criminal complaint, the obliged entity shall release and execute the transaction.

(7) Should the Ministry file a criminal complaint in the period stipulated in para. 1 or 3 to the law enforcement body as stipulated in Section 32(1), the obliged entity shall perform the transaction in 3 calendar days after the criminal complaint had been filed unless the law enforcement bodies have decided to seize or freeze such assets. The Ministry shall inform the obliged entity of the criminal complaint prior to the expiration of the period under para. 1 or 3.

CHAPTER IV ADDITIONAL OBLIGATIONS OF OBLIGED ENTITIES

Section 21

System of Internal Rules

(1) To fulfil the obligations under this Act, the obliged entity shall establish and enforce adequate and appropriate procedures of internal control and communication.

(2) The obliged entity mentioned in Section 2(1a) to 2(1d), 2(1h) and 2(1i) shall create, to the extent of its activities regulated by this Act, written system of internal rules, procedures and compliance checks to fulfil its obligations under this Act (hereinafter only „system of internal rules“).

(3) The obliged entity mentioned in Section 2(1b) to 2(1d), 2(1h) and 2(1i) may decide not to create any written system of internal rules provided, in the scope of activities regulated by this Act, it does not employ or contract any other persons.

(4) The obliged entity mentioned in Section 2(1b) to 2(1d), 2(1h) and 2(1i) contracted by another obliged entity to perform services regulated by this Act, is not obliged to have its own system of internal rules provided it enforces the system of internal rules of the other obliged entity which adequately describes its activities.

- business relationship, product, or service and the respective risk of legitimisation of proceeds of crime and financing of terrorism,
- d) adequate and relevant methods and procedures to assess and manage risks and perform internal controls and supervision of compliance with this Act,
 - e) a procedure for reporting of data kept under Chapter II to the relevant authorities,
 - f) a description of steps taken by the obliged entity from the moment of the detection of the suspicious transaction to its reporting to the Ministry so that the statutory period under Section 18(1) is complied with and so are rules of processing such suspicious transaction and appointment of persons to evaluate the transaction,
 - g) rules and procedures regulating the performance of persons offering services or products on behalf of or on the account of the obliged entity,
 - h) measures to prevent any immediate carrying out of a customer order which may substantially hamper or render impossible the subsequent seizure of proceeds of crime,
 - i) technical and personnel measures to defer the customer order under Section 20 and to comply, in a statutory period, with all obligations under Section 24,
 - j) a description, in cases regulated by Section 25(4), of additional measures taken for the purpose of efficient management of risk of legitimisation of proceeds of crime and financing of terrorism.

(6) A credit institution, payment institution, electronic money institution, financial institution under Section 2(1b), point 11, and an obliged entity under Section 2(1c) shall submit their system of internal rules to the Ministry within 60 days after having become an obliged entity; notification on any changes of the system of internal rules shall be submitted to the Ministry in writing within 30 days after their adoption. An obliged entity under Section 2(1b), point 1 to 4 shall report to the Czech National Bank.

(7) A foreign credit or financial institution operating in the territory of the Czech Republic via its branch or a subsidiary may opt not to have a separate system of internal rules provided that operations of the branch or subsidiary are regulated by the system of internal rules of the mother foreign credit or financial institution; such system of internal rules shall meet requirements at least equivalent to those stipulated by this Act and shall be available in Czech.

(8) Should the Ministry or the Czech National Bank reveal any deficiencies in the system of internal rules submitted in accordance with para. 6, they shall set a date for correction. The obliged entity shall, within the prescribed period, remove the deficiencies and report its steps in writing to the above authorities.

(9) An implementing regulation has been adopted determining, in accordance with para. 5(c) and 5(d), requirements for implementing and enforcing the system of internal rules by selected obliged entities supervised by the Czech National Bank²¹⁾.

Section 22

Contact Person

(1) The obliged entity shall appoint one of its employees to report under Section 18 and to maintain regular contacts with the Ministry, unless it is decided to entrust such responsibilities on its statutory body. The Ministry shall be, with no undue delay, notified of such appointment and informed of the name, surname, position, and telephone number and email address of the appointee.

(2) No credit or financial institution shall appoint a member of its statutory body as a contact person unless it was necessary with regards to its size, management structure, or number of employees.

²¹⁾ Section 44, Act No. 6/1993 Coll., on the Czech National Bank, as amended.

(3) No credit or financial institution shall appoint as a contact person a member of staff responsible for performing or settlement of its transactions or an employee participating in the performance of internal audit.

(4) The obliged entities which decide not to entrust the contact responsibilities on its statutory bodies shall provide for a direct contact in between the appointed contact person on one side and its statutory and supervisory bodies on the other.

Section 23

Staff Training

(1) The obliged entity shall organize, at least once every 12 calendar months, training of all members of its staff who may, in the course of their professional obligations, come in contact with suspicious transactions. All appointees to such positions shall be trained prior to taking their appointment.

(2) The obliged entity shall provide the training under para. 1 above to all its contractors who may, in the course of their activities, come in contact with suspicious transactions.

(3) The training shall concentrate on types and features of suspicious transactions and steps to be taken in detecting such transactions. The obliged entity shall regularly update such training.

(4) The obliged entity shall keep record of participants and training agenda for a period of at least 5 years.

Section 24

Obligation to inform

The obliged entity shall, upon request and within a given period of time, report to the Ministry all information on transactions requiring identification or transactions investigated by the Ministry together with documentation and information on persons taking part in such transactions. Should the Ministry request so, the obliged entity shall provide access to documentation on site.

CHAPTER V

SPECIAL PROVISIONS RELATING TO SELECTED OBLIGED ENTITIES

Section 25

Special Provisions Relating to Credit and Financial Institutions

PART THREE

ACTIVITY OF THE MINISTRY AND OTHER AUTHORITIES

CHAPTER I

ACTIVITY OF THE MINISTRY AND OTHER AUTHORITIES

Section 30

Obtaining Information

(1) The Ministry may request information necessary for the compliance with obligations under this Act from the Police of the Czech Republic, intelligence services and other public authorities.

(2) When investigating a suspicious transaction, the Ministry may, pursuant to the Tax Administration Act, request from the authorities competent under other laws governing tax administration information obtained in the course of tax administration; the authorities shall inform the Ministry immediately of any suspicion that a taxpayer is exploiting the tax administration system for the legitimisation of proceeds of crime or financing of terrorism.

(3) In order to perform its responsibilities under this Act, the Ministry shall be provided with the following:

- a) reference data from the central register of inhabitants,
- b) data on inhabitants from the inhabitant information system,
- c) data on foreigners from the foreigners information system,
- d) data on natural persons who have received a birth identification number but appear in neither b) nor c), from the register of birth identification numbers.

(4) Technical circumstances permitting, the Ministry of Interior shall provide the information specified in para. 3 to the Ministry in electronic format in a form allowing for remote access.

(5) Out of all the information provided, only the information necessary for the case in question shall be used.

(6) Based on a suspicious transaction report from an intelligence service, the Ministry shall commence investigation of the suspicious transaction; the Ministry shall notify the intelligence service of the conclusion.

Section 31

Processing of Information

(1) The Ministry collects and analyses information obtained in the course of performing its tasks under this Act. It shall have the right to store the information obtained in the course of performing its tasks under this Act in an information system, on the condition that all the requirements set out in the Personal Data Protection Act have been met. The Ministry shall have the right to collate the information and information systems serving different purposes.

(2) While complying with the Personal Data Protection Act, the Ministry shall not provide information to the affected person in respect of the information kept about the person in the information system maintained under this Act.

(3) The Ministry shall archive data and documents relating to suspicious transactions reports and the investigation of the suspicious transactions for a period of 10 years, commencing at the end of the year when the investigation was concluded. Registration of a new report or a renewal of an investigation pertaining to the same matter or the same person or entity, the period referred to in the first sentence is suspended pending the conclusion of the new investigation.

(4) The Ministry shall maintain, and publish at least once a year on its website, statistical reports on effectiveness and results of measures against the legitimisation of proceeds of crime and financing of terrorism. Law enforcement authorities shall provide the Ministry on a regular basis with summary statistics on matters relating to the legitimisation of proceeds of crime and financing of terrorism.

(5) The Financial Analytical Unit is technically separate from other departments of the Ministry; it has implemented organizational, personnel and other measures to ensure that unauthorised persons do not come into contact with information obtained under this Act.

Section 32

Handling of Investigation Results

(1) Should the Ministry find facts suggesting that a crime has been committed it shall lodge a criminal complaint under the Code of Criminal Procedure and provide the law enforcement authority with all the information found by the Ministry in the course of its investigation.

(2) Should the Ministry find facts that may be of importance to the Tax Administration of the Czech Republic or customs authorities, it shall inform the General Financial Directorate or the General Directorate of Customs immediately of these facts, and provide these authorities with the results of its investigation, unless the disclosure of the information is in violation of this Act or the Ministry had acted under para. 1.

Section 33

International Co-operation

(1) In the scope set out by an international treaty by which the Czech Republic is bound, or on the principle of reciprocity, the Ministry shall co-operate with third country authorities and international organisations of the same scope of competence, in particular in providing and obtaining information to deliver on the purpose of this Act.

(2) Provided that the information is used exclusively for the purpose of this Act and is protected at least in the scope laid down in this Act, the Ministry may co-operate also with other international organisations.

Section 34

Granting of Exemptions

(1) Upon request, the Ministry may decide that an obliged entity performing any of the activities listed in Section 2(1) only occasionally or in a very limited scope, and in a way that precludes or significantly reduces the risk of such person being exploited for the legitimisation of proceeds of crime and financing of terrorism, shall not be considered an obliged entity under this Act.

(2) The exemption as per para. 1 shall be granted on the condition that:

- a) the activity is a non-core activity directly relating to the core activity of the obliged entity, which otherwise under the exemption according to Section 2(2d) is not an obliged entity under this Act, and the activity is provided only as a sideline to the main activity of the obliged entity,
- b) the total annual revenue from this activity does not exceed 5% from the total annual revenue of the obliged entity, and at the same time the total annual revenue from this activity does not exceed the limit set by the Ministry in its decision for the type of activity in question,
- c) it is ensured that the value of an individual transaction or of multiple transactions with one customer of the activity referred to in point a) shall not exceed the amount of EUR 1,000 in the period of 30 consecutive days.

(3) The obliged entity shall attach a proof of compliance with the conditions set in para. 1 and 2 to the application for an exemption.

(4) An exemption as per para. 1 may be granted only for a definite period of time. In its decision, the Ministry shall specify any other obligations within the scope of obligations of obliged entities, in order to prevent the exploitation of the exemption for the legitimisation of proceeds of crime and financing of terrorism.

(5) The Ministry shall grant the exemption only on the condition that the risk of exploitation of the exemption for the legitimisation of proceeds of crime and financing of terrorism on the part of the obliged entity is eliminated or significantly reduced.

(6) For the period of validity of the exemption as per para. 1, the obliged entity shall enable the supervisory authority (Section 35(1)) to control the compliance with the specified conditions, and to control that the exemption is not exploited for activities that would facilitate legitimisation of proceeds of crime and financing of terrorism. Supervisory authorities hold the same powers in this respect as they do for controlling obliged entities.

(7) The obligation of the obliged entity stipulated in Section 18, and the steps taken by the Ministry in respect of the obliged entity during an investigation of a suspicious transaction under Section 24, shall not be affected by the decision to grant an exemption as per para. 1.

(8) The Ministry shall revoke the exemption granted under Section 1 when:

- a) the risk of exploitation of the activity for the legitimisation of proceeds of crime and financing of terrorism has materially changed, or
- b) the holder of the exemption has violated the specified conditions.

(9) An administrative remedy lodged against the decision in para. 8 shall not suspend the given decision.

CHAPTER II ADMINISTRATIVE SUPERVISION

Section 35

Performance of Administrative Supervision

(1) The Ministry shall act as the supervisory authority performing the administrative supervision of the compliance with obligations set out in this Act on the part of the obliged entities; the Ministry shall, at the same time, control whether obliged entities do not legitimize the proceeds of crime and finance terrorism. Compliance with obligations set out in this Act is in addition supervised by the following institutions:

- a) the Czech National Bank in respect of persons subject to its supervision²¹⁾,
- b) administrative authorities with powers to supervise the compliance with the legislation regulating lotteries and other similar games, and in respect of holders of licences to operate betting games listed in Section 2 (1c),
- c) the Czech Trade Inspection in respect of persons listed in Section 2 (1j) and 2(1k).

(2) The Ministry also exercises control of the compliance with obligations according to the directly applicable European Community regulation stipulating the obligation to accompany transfers of funds with information on the payer²⁰⁾; the Czech National Bank exercises control of the compliance with obligations under the same instrument in respect of persons subject to its supervision²¹⁾.

(3) The Ministry shall provide information about its own activities, in the scope necessary for the performance of state control or supervision, to the other supervisory authorities.

(4) At its request, the other supervisory authorities shall provide to the Ministry their written opinions or any other co-operation as requested.

(5) Should the supervisory authority as per para. 1(a) to 1(c) find facts that may be related to the legitimisation of proceeds of crime and financing of terrorism, it shall immediately inform the Ministry of these findings and provide it with all information in the scope as per Section 18(2).

Section 36

Motion to Revoke a Business Licence or a Licence to Perform another Independent Gainful Activity

Should the Ministry learn that a legal or a natural person with an income from business or other independent gainful activity has materially, grossly or repeatedly violated any of its obligations specified in this Act or in a decision issued under this Act, the Ministry shall lodge a motion to terminate or revoke a licence for business or other gainful activity to the authority, which, under another law, has the power to decide on the revocation. This authority is obliged to notify the Ministry of the steps taken and the result within 30 days from the making of the motion.

Section 37

Special Provisions Relating to Administrative Supervision of a Lawyer, Public Notary, Auditor, Licensed Executor, or a Tax Advisor

(1) Provisions of this Chapter do not apply to lawyers, public notaries, auditors, licensed executors, and tax advisors.

(2) Based on a written motion from the Ministry, the relevant professional chamber shall be obliged to check compliance with the obligations imposed by this Act on a lawyer, public notary, auditor, licensed executor or a tax advisor, and notify the Ministry of the results within the deadline specified by the Ministry.

PART FOUR CONFIDENTIALITY

Section 38

Obligation of Confidentiality

(1) Unless provided otherwise in this Act, the obliged entities and their employees, employees of the Ministry, employees of other supervisory authorities as well as natural persons working for an obliged entity, the Ministry or another supervisory authority on a basis of a contract other than an employment contract shall be obliged to keep confidential facts relating to suspicious transaction reports and investigation, steps taken by the Ministry or the obligation to inform as stipulated by Section 24.

(2) The obligation of confidentiality shall not expire should the persons referred to in para. 1 above be transferred to another job, their employment or other contractual relationship to the obliged entity, the Ministry or other supervisory authority terminate, or should the obliged entity cease to perform activities listed in Section 2.

(3) Any person who may learn facts referred to in para. 1 shall be obliged to keep them confidential.

Section 39

Exemptions from Confidentiality

(1) The obligation of confidentiality stipulated in Section 38 cannot be invoked in respect of:

- a) a law enforcement authority if it is conducting criminal proceedings related to the legitimisation of proceeds of crime and financing of terrorism, or if the matter concerns the compliance with the obligation to report a suspicious transaction in connection with any such crime,
- b) specialised Police units involved in the identification of the proceeds of crime and financing of terrorism, provided the information has been obtained according to Section 42(3),
- c) an authority of a third country referred to in Section 33 in the process of provision of information intended for the purpose of delivering on the purpose of this Act, unless prohibited by another legal instrument,
- d) the General Financial Directorate or the General Directorate of Customs in relation to facts which are a part of information referred to in Section 32(2),
- e) supervisory authorities referred to in Section 35(1), and the competent bodies of professional chambers of lawyers, public notaries, auditors, licensed executors or tax advisors,
- f) administrative authorities performing tasks in the system of certification of raw diamonds subject to another legal instrument,
- g) the administrative authority competent to perform state control or conduct an administrative procedure in the area of implementation of international sanctions;

- h) an authority mandated by another law to decide on the revocation of a licence for business or other independent gainful activity upon the lodging of a motion filed by the Ministry,
- i) a financial arbitrator deciding, according to another law, in a dispute of the claimant against an institution,
- j) a person who could raise a claim for damages incurred as a result of the implementation of this Act, provided facts conclusive for the making of the claim are communicated ex post; the obliged entity may, in this instance, inform the customer that steps had been taken under this Act, but only after the decision of the competent law enforcement authority to secure or seize the subject of the suspicious transaction, or for which the period as per Section 20(7) had expired, was enforced; in all other instances only after the Ministry has granted its written consent,
- k) a court adjudicating civil law disputes concerning a suspicious transaction or a claim for compensation for damages incurred as a result of complying with obligations under this Act,
- l) the National Security Office, Ministry of Interior or an intelligence service in the process of a clearance procedure in accordance with another legal instrument²⁴⁾,
- m) the competent intelligence service provided the information is material for the meeting of the statutory tasks specified for the intelligence service.

(2) Provided that the disclosed information is used exclusively for the prevention of legitimisation of proceeds of crime and financing of terrorism, the obligation of confidentiality stipulated in Section 38 cannot be applied to the sharing of information between:

- a) credit or financial institutions, including foreign credit and financial institutions, if they operate in the territory of a state which obliges them to comply with obligations in the area of legitimisation of proceeds of crime and financing of terrorism, which are equivalent to the requirements of the European Communities law, provided these institutions are part of the same group as per the act governing financial conglomerates²⁵⁾,
- b) obliged entities referred to in Section 2(1e) and 2(1f), or persons of the same type, which operate in the territory of a state which obliges them to comply with obligations in the area of legitimisation of proceeds of crime and financing of terrorism, which are equivalent to the requirements of the European Communities law, provided these persons carry out their profession as employees or in a similar relationship within the same legal person and between legal persons which are related, either on the basis of a contract, or through persons,
- c) credit or financial institutions, or between obliged entities referred to in Section 2(1e) and 2(1f), or persons of the same type, which operate in the territory of a state which obliges them to comply with obligations in the area of legitimisation of proceeds of crime and financing of terrorism, which are equivalent to the requirements of the European Communities law, provided the disclosed information relates to the same customer and the same transaction, which two or more persons of the same professional category are a party to, and these persons are bound by equivalent obligations to keep a professional secret and protect personal data.

(3) The obligation of confidentiality cannot be invoked in a procedure under the Act on Implementation of International Sanctions.

²⁴⁾ Act No. 412/2005 Coll., on the protection of classified information and on security clearance, as amended.

²⁵⁾ Act No. 377/2005 Coll., on supplemental supervision of banks, savings and credit co-operatives, electronic money institutions, insurance companies and securities traders in financial conglomerates, and on the amendment of some other laws (Financial Conglomerates Act), as amended.

Section 40

Special Provisions Relating to Confidentiality by a Lawyer, Public Notary, Auditor, Licensed Executor and a Tax Advisor

- (1) Provisions of this Part shall not apply to lawyers and public notaries.
- (2) With the exception of the provisions of Section 39(2), provisions of this Part do not apply to auditors, licensed executors and tax advisors.
- (3) A lawyer, public notary, auditor, licensed executor and a tax advisor shall be obliged to keep confidential, in respect of the customer, the facts referred to in Section 38(1); the foregoing does not apply if the facts, if disclosed to the customer, could prevent the customer from involvement in a criminal activity.
- (4) Para. 1 to 3 shall apply to other persons who are obliged by other laws to keep the same confidentiality as lawyers, public notaries, licensed executors and tax advisors.

PART FIVE CROSS-BORDER TRANSIT

Section 41

Obligation to Declare in Cross-border Transit

- (1) Upon entry to the territory of the Czech Republic from a third country which is not the territory of the European Communities, and on exit from the Czech Republic to any such territory, a natural person shall be obliged to declare to the customs authority in writing any transport of currency of the Czech Republic or another country, travel cheques or money orders convertible into cash, bearer or registered securities or any other investment instruments which are signed, but do not contain the name of the beneficiary, in the value of EUR 10,000 or higher.
- (2) The obligation as per para. 1 shall apply also to a legal person transporting any of the items referred to in para. 1. The natural person bearing these items upon crossing of the border of the European Communities shall be liable to make the declaration on behalf of the relevant legal person.
- (3) Any person sending a postal or other consignment from the Czech Republic to a third country outside the territory of the European Communities, or accepting a postal or other consignment therefrom, which contains items referred to in para. 1 in the value of EUR 10,000 or higher, shall declare the consignment to the competent customs authority and make it available for inspection by the customs.
- (4) The obligation to declare stipulated in para. 1 to 3 shall also be binding on a person who imports to the territory of the European Communities or exports therefrom, or receives or sends during a period of 12 consecutive months, items referred to in para. 1 in the value of EUR 10,000 or higher. The obligation to declare shall begin to apply as of the person learning that the aforementioned limit will be reached.
- (5) A declaration as per para. 1 to 4 shall contain the declarant's identification data, the identification data of the owner and the intended recipient of the transported item, if known to the declarant, a description of the transported item, and a proof of origin of the exported or imported item, the intended route and means of transport.
- (6) The declaration shall be made using a Common Declaration Form of the EU which forms an Appendix to this Act. The Common Declaration Form of the EU shall be available at the customs authority; the Ministry shall also publish the Common Declaration Form of the EU including all its language versions published by the European Commission in a way which allows for remote access. The declarant shall be liable for the veracity and completeness of the declared information.

(7) The exchange rate published by the Czech National Bank as valid on the last but one Wednesday of the previous calendar month, shall be used for the following whole calendar month for conversion of another currency to Euro for the purpose of para. 1, 3 or 4. Upon verbal enquiry, the customs authority shall inform potential declarants of the applicable exchange rate for the purpose of compliance with the obligation to report as per para. 1 to 4. The value of securities shall be construed as their fair market value, or the value determined based on official market rates.

Section 42

Activities of Customs Authorities

(1) Customs authorities supervise the compliance with the obligation to declare as per Section 41.

(2) Customs authorities record and process declarations referred to in Section 41, including personal data contained therein. For the purposes of exercising control as per para. 1, customs authorities may record and store information concerning the transport or delivery as per Section 41(1), whose value is lesser than EUR 10,000.

(3) Customs authority via the General Directorate of Customs shall immediately forward to the Ministry information concerning the compliance with the obligation to declare under Section 41, including all cases of violation thereof.

(4) A customs authority may, upon learning of a violation of obligations set out in Section 41(1) to 41(4), freeze items concerned by the violation. No appeal is permitted against the decision on freezing of items made by the customs authority; the decision is enforceable as of the moment of its verbal promulgation, against the person bearing the items. A written execution of the decision shall be delivered to the bearer from whom the items were frozen; freezing of items shall also be notified by way of an original counterpart of the decision sent to the importer or exporter and the owner, provided these persons are different from the bearer and are known to the customs authority.

(5) The person who receives the decision on freezing of items as per para. 4 shall relinquish the items to the customs authority. Should the items not be relinquished on demand, they shall be seized. The customs authority shall issue a receipt to that effect to the person who has relinquished the items or from whom they were seized.

(6) Should the frozen items not be required for further procedure, a forfeiture or expropriation order is not issued in respect of them, and they cannot be used for the payment of a fine, cost of the procedure or enforcement, the customs authority shall return them without undue delay to the person who has relinquished them or from whom they were seized.

PART SIX ADMINISTRATIVE OFFENCES

Section 43

Violation of the Obligation of Confidentiality

(1) An employee of an obliged entity, employee of the Ministry or other supervisory authority, or a natural person who, based on other than an employment contract with an obliged entity, the Ministry or another supervisory authority, commits a minor offence by breaking the obligation of confidentiality stipulated in Section 38(1) or 38(2).

(1) An obliged entity commits an administrative offence by violating the obligation to suspend a transaction of the customer as per Section 20(1).

(2) An obliged entity commits an administrative offence by violating the obligation to suspend a transaction of the customer or to seize assets based on a decision issued by the Ministry under Section 20(3).

(3) A fine up to CZK 1,000,000 shall be imposed for an administrative offence as per para. 1.

(4) A fine up to CZK 10,000,000 shall be imposed for an administrative offence as per para. 2.

Section 48

Failure to Comply with the Obligation of Prevention

(1) An obliged entity referred to under Section 21(2) to elaborate in writing a system of internal rules and provided it is not exempt under Section 21(3) or 21(4) commits an administrative offence by failing to elaborate a system of internal rules as per Section 21(5) not later than 60 days since it has become an obliged entity.

(2) An obliged entity referred to under Section 21(6) to deliver in writing its system of internal rules or notification on any changes thereto to the Ministry or to the Czech National Bank commits an administrative offence by failing to deliver the system of internal rules or notification on any changes thereto as required by Section 21(6), or by failing to notify in writing of the implementation of remedies to issues found according to Section 21(8).

(3) An obliged entity commits an administrative offence by failing to ensure that its employees undergo training as required by Section 23.

(4) A credit institution commits an administrative offence by violating the obligations in the course of entering in a correspondent banking relationship according to Section 25(1), 25(2) or 25(3).

(5) An obliged entity referred to in Section 29(1) commits an administrative offence by carrying out activities based on a postal contract, under conditions laid down in the Postal Services Act, which activities serve the purpose of delivering a remittance of money and are carried out without an authorization as per Section 29.

(6) A fine up to CZK 1,000,000 shall be imposed for an administrative offence as per para. 1 to 3.

(7) A fine up to CZK 5,000,000 shall be imposed for an administrative offence as per para. 4 or 5.

Section 49

Failure to Comply with Obligations Relating to a Transfer of Funds

(1) An obliged entity, being a provider of payment services or an agent provider of payment services, commits an administrative offence relating to transfer of funds if, in contravention to a directly applicable European Community regulation stipulating the obligation to accompany transfers of funds with information on the payer²⁰, it

- a) fails to ensure that the information on the payer accompany the transfer,
- b) has not implemented effective procedures for identification of missing or incomplete information on the payer,
- c) fails to take action against the provider of payment services of the payer who has failed to ensure that a transfer of funds is accompanied with information on the payer, or

d) fails to present upon request of the provider of payment services of the recipient information on the payer in cases when the transfer of funds does not include full information on the payer.

(2) A fine up to CZK 10,000,000 shall be imposed for an administrative offence as per para. 1.

Section 50

Failure to Comply with the Obligation to Declare a Cross-border Transport of Cash

(1) A natural person commits a minor offence by

- a) failing to comply with the obligation to declare on entry to the Czech Republic from countries outside the European Communities, or on exit from the Czech Republic to such countries as per Section 41(1) or 41(4), or
- b) failing to comply with the obligation to declare a postal or other consignment from the Czech Republic to countries outside the European Communities, or from the Czech Republic to such countries as per Section 41(3) or 41(4).

(2) A legal person commits an administrative offence by

- a) failing to comply with the obligation to declare on entry to the Czech Republic from countries outside the European Communities, or on exit from the Czech Republic to such countries as per Section 41(2) or 41(4), or
- b) failing to comply with the obligation to declare a postal or other consignment from the Czech Republic to countries outside the European Communities, or from the Czech Republic to such countries as per Section 41(3) or 41(4).

(3) A fine up to CZK 10,000,000 or a forfeiture of the item may be imposed for an administrative offence as per para. 1.

(4) A fine up to CZK 10,000,000 or a forfeiture of the item shall be imposed for an administrative offence as per para. 2.

Common Provisions Relating to Administrative Offences

Section 51

(1) A forfeiture may be ordered if the item belongs to the offender and

- a) has been used to commit an administrative offence, or
- b) has been acquired by committing an administrative offence or in exchange for an item acquired by committing an administrative offence.

(2) Should a forfeiture of the item as per para. 1(a) or 1(b) not be ordered, a decision shall be issued to expropriate the item when it

- a) belongs to an offender, who cannot be prosecuted for an administrative offence,
- b) does not belong to the offender in whole or in part, or
- c) its owner is not known.

(3) Forfeiture cannot be ordered or the item cannot be expropriated if the value of the item is grossly disproportionate to the nature of the administrative offence.

(4) The state shall become the legal owner of the forfeited or expropriated item.

Section 52

(1) A legal person shall not be liable for an administrative offence if it proves that it has made all reasonable effort to prevent the violation of the legal obligation.

(2) In assessing a fine for a legal person, the seriousness of the administrative offence shall be taken into consideration, especially the way it has been committed, and its consequences and circumstances.

(3) The administrative liability of a legal person shall cease if the competent administrative authority does not commence a procedure within 2 years from learning of the administrative offence, but no later than 10 years from the date it was committed.

(4) Liability for actions taken in the course of business of a natural person or in a direct relation thereto shall be governed by provisions on liability and sanctions of a legal person according to this Act.

(5) With the exception of administrative offences committed by an obliged entity as per Section 2(1j) and 2(1k), and administrative offences as per Section 50, administrative offences under this Act shall in the first instance be decided upon by the Ministry.

(6) Administrative offences committed by an obliged entity as per Section 2(1j) and 2(1k) shall in the first instance be decided upon by a supervisory authority.

(7) Administrative offences under Section 50 shall be decided upon by the customs authority competent on the basis of the offender's permanent residence.

(8) Fines and fees for the cost of proceedings shall be collected by the administrative authority that has imposed them. Fines and fees for the cost of proceedings shall be due in 30 days after the decision becomes effective. Revenues from fines and fees constitute revenues of the state budget.

(9) Should a fine be overdue, the competent customs authority may use the seized items as per Section 41(1), 41(3) and 41(4), should any such items have been seized; the applicable provision is the provision on the right of lien under the Customs Act.

Section 53

Actions taken by a lawyer, public notary, auditor, licensed executor or a tax advisor in the capacity of an obliged entity, which bear the elements of an administrative offence according to Sections 43 to 48, shall be decided upon according to another law²⁶⁾. The supervisory authority referred to in Section 35(1) shall immediately refer the matter to the authority competent under such other legal instrument, and shall take all necessary steps to secure evidence, as instructed by such competent authority.

PART SEVEN COMMON AND FINAL PROVISIONS

Section 54

(1) The obligations imposed by this Act on the obliged entities shall concern only activities that are the purpose of their business or of the services they provide.

(2) Unless stipulated otherwise in this Act, obliged entities referred to in Section 2(2a) and 2(2b) shall be bound by the obligations stipulated by this Act for the relevant type of obliged entity according to Section 2(1).

(3) Unless stipulated otherwise in this Act (Section 41(7)), the amount in Euro shall, for the purpose of this Act, be computed as an equivalent amount in any currency based on an exchange rate published by the Czech National Bank for the day when the obligation under this Act is being complied with; if the exchange rate is not available for the day in question, the exchange rate valid on the day preceding shall be used. If a payment is divided into several instalments, the value of the transaction shall be the sum of these instalments, provided they are related.

(4) Payment in commodities of high value, especially precious metals or precious stones, shall be regarded as payment in cash.

(5) An obliged entity under whose name or on whose account products or services are marketed by third parties shall ensure that these third parties observe all the procedures against the legitimisation of proceeds of crime and financing of terrorism in the same scope as the obliged entity.

Section 55

(1) Proceedings conducted under this Act shall always be closed to the public.

(2) Based on a received suspicious transaction report or another motion, the Ministry shall investigate without undue delay.

(3) Upon the conclusion of the investigation, the Ministry shall, without undue delay, notify the person who reported the suspicious transaction in a suitable manner. No other person shall be notified of the investigation and its conclusions.

(4) In the course of their activities under this Act, authorised employees of the Ministry identify themselves with a service card issued under the Act on Implementation of International Sanctions.

Section 56

Enabling Provision

The Czech National Bank shall pass a regulation to implement Section 21(9).

Section 57

Interim Provisions

(1) Proceedings commenced prior to this Act coming into effect shall be concluded according to this Act, with the exception of proceedings concerning an infraction or another administrative violation committed prior to this Act coming into effect, if the earlier statute is more favourable for the offender.

(2) A person who, on the day of this Act coming into effect, performs activities based on a postal contract, under conditions laid down in the Postal Services Act, which activities serve the purpose of delivering a remittance of money, may continue to perform these activities without an authorisation as per Section 29 for a maximum period of 6 months after this Act becomes effective.

(3) An obliged entity referred to in Section 2(1a) to 2(1d), 2(1h) and 2(1i), who has a system of internal rules, procedures and controls compliant with the legislation valid to date, shall elaborate a system of rules, procedures and controls as per Section 21(2) within 60 days after this Act becomes effective.

(4) A credit institution, financial institution referred to in Section 2(1b) points 5, 6, 10 and 11, and an obliged entity referred to in Section 2(1c), which has a system of internal rules, procedures and controls compliant with the legislation valid to date, the person shall deliver to the Ministry a system of rules, procedures and controls as per Section 21(2) within 60 days after this Act becomes effective.

Section 58

Repealing Provisions

The following are repealed:

1. Act No. 61/1996 Coll., on certain measures against legitimisation of proceeds of crime and on the amendment and supplementation of related laws;
2. Regulation No. 343/2004 Coll., prescribing the format of the form according to Section 5(5) of the Act No. 61/1996 Coll., on certain measures against legitimisation of proceeds of crime and on the amendment and supplementation of related laws;
3. Regulation No. 344/2004 Coll., on compliance with the obligation to report according to Act No. 61/1996 Coll., on certain measures against legitimisation of proceeds of crime and on the amendment and supplementation of related laws;
4. Regulation No. 283/2006 Coll., amending the Regulation No. 344/2004 Coll., on compliance with the obligation to report according to Act No. 61/1996 Coll., on certain measures against legitimisation of proceeds of crime and on the amendment and supplementation of related laws.

Section 59

Effect

This Act becomes effective as of the first day of the second calendar month following the day of its promulgation.
